“ Dennis was a very dear friend to me and my son's for over 45 year's. I am going to miss him so much. We have so many fond memories of him, trucking, hunting and just talking about guns. He was a an awesome father, Granfather, brother, uncle & friend. He was at everyone of my son's births and i still to this day never found out how he knew i was in the hospital, but he was there. At my son Josh's birth he and my husband Bruce were walking to my room to visit me and the nurse told them only husband/father could visit. Bruce my husband told the nurse he was father of the baby & Dennis was my husband.. After that the nurse was very rude to me and i didn't know why, until i was told what was said to her. I still laugh about that story when i tell it.. I am going to miss you Denny Pooh, love you with all my heart. And i thank you for always being there for my son's and I when ever we needed you.. R.I.P. Oorah!!

“ I have a life time of memories with uncle everyone I'll cherish and hold onto.our poker and dice games were my favorite as an adult .but as a kid he used to let me start his diesel truck,he taught me how to shoot and fish how to properly tie a hook but most of all he taught me to be a man saved my life 13 yrs ago never gave up on me no matter what I did. I'm gonna miss my uncle tiil I join him the greatest uncle a guy could have

“ My dad was my world! Everybody already knows this. Dad had a heart of gold, very stubborn, loved his kids with his whole heart, and boy ol boy he absolutely loved his grandbabies!!!! If it wasn't for my dad I wouldn't be the person I am today. I love you Daddio, thank you for the wonderful life and memories you gave me, I'll always be your baby girl
