February 13, 1942 - August 15, 2023

Ann Collins Hanewald, a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and beacon of love, passed away on August 15, 2023 at her home in Seneca, South Carolina, surrounded in love by her family. Born in Patchogue, New York to the late Dr. Stuart and Marian Collins, she was raised in Elmira, New York, where she also raised her own family. She is survived by her loving husband Dr. Thomas Hanewald, her four children, eight grandchildren, and her two siblings.

An alumna of Hood College, Ann began her career as a Red Cross social worker before embracing her role as a dedicated mother and homemaker. A creative spirit and life-long learner, she generously shared her love for learning, travel and crafting with her family and friends, leaving behind a legacy of inspiration, imagination, love and resilience.

In lieu of flowers, the Hanewald family kindly requests that donations be made to Prisma Health Hospice of the Foothills, 298 Memorial Drive, in Seneca, South Carolina 29672 in honor of Ann.

Her memory will forever remain in our hearts.

“ I have such vivid memories of Ann in our youth. She was Sherry's really cool older sister, with model-quality good looks. Rob and I send our sincere sympathy to Tom and all of Ann's family in this sad time.
