“ It is with a sad heart to see this obituary. I have sweet memories of Clyde from years ago. He was a fun and kind gentleman and you could pick him out quickly by his immaculate yellow Chevrolet years ago when "cutting town" was the thing to do on the weekends. One precious story that has stuck with me all my life --He told me about getting a new bicycle when he was a little boy. He was thrilled as he took off on it on Christmas morning, only to find that all the nuts and bolts needed to be tightened. The handle bar collapsed as other major parts came apart. He lost control of his new ride and wrecked. Bless him! Thank you everyone who was a friend to him throughout his life. It is a precious gift to pass on as you listed in his obituary---to live a life of gratitude and love. Rest in Peace.
