

Elizabeth Hudson LeGette

October 8, 1946 - November 24, 2020

Elizabeth Hudson LeGette, 74, of Seneca, SC died peacefully at home on November 24 after a 5 year battle with cancer. She is preceded in death by her husband, Edwin LeGette, and is survived by daughter, Rebecca Jones, of the home, daughter, Corryn Fassino, of Seneca and son, Trevor Jones, (Tina) of Waconia, MN. Beth was the proud Nana of Jack and Mason Fassino and Avery and Harper Jones.

Mrs. LeGette was born in Saco, ME and moved with her family to SC in 1959. She grew up in Seneca with 5 brothers and a sister who were known to many as the Hudson B's.

Beth graduated from Clemson University as one of the first co-eds. She started her career in banking as a teller for SC National Bank in 1979. After several bank mergers, and many years of service, Beth retired in 2005 as an investment broker for Wachovia Investments. In 1986, she met the love of her life, Ed LeGette, and they married in 1988.

Retirement was filled with volunteer and service work for her church (St Paul Catholic Church), AIAnon, and NAMI.

She and Ed loved to travel together, and were proud to have been able to visit 48 states. Beth had a passion for the design of Frank Lloyd Wright, and visited over 200 of his homes and buildings.

Due to Covid, there will be a private entombment and no public service.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to NAMI (nami.org) or AlAnon (al-anon.org).
