“ My memories of my dear sister in law Fay are beautiful ones. I remember her playing basket ball and that long shiney black hair. Memories of she and my brother married and come to my house everyday after brothers work. Wth little Angie. The laughs we had and the times we got to go see them. I will always treasure the memories. Rhonda and Becky. My love for you and I share your grief and 💔Heart. God bless you sweet nieces. Love you. Aunt Joyce and uncle Danny

“ Rebecca and Rhonda my heart goes out to you and your families. Our parents are precious to us and as we age quickly so it seems our time with them seems short. What a blessing are the memories we can always cherish. God Bless and keep you all.
