

Ms. Jacqueline Lacey

March 5, 1964 - October 26, 2025

Jacqueline Lacey, 61, of Walhalla, South Carolina, passed away peacefully on October 26, 2025.

Born in New Haven, Connecticut, Jacqueline brought warmth and kindness to everyone who knew her. She was a loving mother, grandmother, sister, and friend whose compassion and generosity touched countless lives.

Jacqueline was known for her nurturing spirit and her remarkable ability to bring people together—especially around the table. Her famous Sunday sauce became a cherished family tradition and a symbol of the love she poured into everything she did. She found joy in cooking for others, creating pottery, and spending quiet moments with her beloved dog, Louie.

Family was the heart of Jacqueline's life. She is survived by her children, Joseph Ferriouolo (Erica), David Ferriouolo (Erica), and Stephanie Vaughn (Benjamin); her grandchildren, Wyatt Vaughn, Westen Jinks, Mia Ferriouolo, JD Ferriouolo, and Lacey Vaughn; and her sisters, Margaret Beliveau and Lorraine Amendola.

She was preceded in death by her sister, Donna Lacey.

Jacqueline will be remembered for her loving heart, her generosity, and the joy she brought to those around her. Her legacy lives on in the love she shared and the many lives she touched.

“ We are very sorry to hear about cousin Jackie. I remember so many comical stories that would bring you to tears. One of which was when I was younger my dad, mom, cousin Joey and cousin Jackie had a water fight in the house. I woke up to infectious laughter and massive amounts of water everywhere. Another silly story was somehow we all ended up at Wendy’s in North Haven after a softball game. Cousin Jackie was sitting with us at the table and she stuck French fries up her nose and made hilarious faces to the people in the drive-through. She is and always has been a super amazing human!! Sending love to you all. Until we meet again...rest well. ❤️

“ I love my mommy so much. And Lacey Rose loves her Mema. Our lives will never, ever be the same. Mommy, I can't wait to see you again. I will miss you more and more with each day that passes until I come home to you.

I could not have even dreamed of a better childhood, a better mother, or a better Mema. You fought a battle against that hideous pancreatic cancer like you had it by the gonads. And you didn't have to, Mom—but like always, you did it for us and for your grandkids. Nothing will ever have more worth in this life than you choosing to fight long enough to meet my baby girl. She will be honored every day of her life to be named after you, Mom.

You can finally be out of pain. You can finally rest. You can finally have no worries.
