

Mr. James "Jim" Myers

July 15, 1937 - January 22, 2023

James "Jim" Myers of Salem, SC, passed away on Sunday, January 22, 2023. He was born 85 years ago in Ohio.

Jim was retired from the United States Air Force and then remained a resident in Charleston, SC, for many years. Twenty years ago, Jim and his previously deceased wife, Carol, made their home near Lake Keowee where they enjoyed making new friends and memories.

Jim served in the Vietnam War and was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross. He was a fun and kind gentleman that enjoyed several careers after his retirement, with golf and time with his Air Force buddies being a large focus. In his later years he worked to achieve the status of a United States Professional Golf Association teaching professional. He enjoyed playing countless rounds of golf and even worked on several golf courses in the South. He also officiated numerous USGA tournaments and events around the country.

The effects of his service in the Vietnam War were disabling to his body in mostly unseen ways. He gained many more years of life due to the generous donation of a kidney by a loving and generous friend.

Earlier in life, Jim suffered the loss of a daughter. He is survived by a daughter, a son, a step-daughter and step-son, and many grandchildren. He is also survived by his companion in recent years, Joni, and her family.

Jim's children will lovingly fulfill Jim's wishes for his remains to be buried at Fort Jackson National Cemetery in Columbia, SC, at a date to be determined.
