

Mr. Jerome Carl DeIuliis

November 11, 1940 - March 27, 2019

Jerome Carl DeIuliis (known as Just Jerry) passed away at the age of 78 in Greenville, SC on March 27, 2019 of natural causes.

Jerry was born on November 11, 1940 to Alfonso DeIuliis and Eleanor (Pilkowski) DeIuliis in Detroit, Michigan. Jerry is an only child and is preceded in death by his parents.

Jerry married Sharon Dugan, the love of his life on May 20, 1994 in Tavares, Florida. While Jerry did not have biological children, by his marriage he loved his four children, Emily Williams, (Natalie) Becky Sunnycalb (Daniel), Tammy Sacco and Shawn Price (Shannon), and 9 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren all of whom Jerry adored.

Jerry graduated Denby High School in Detroit, MI in June of 1959. He then attended college at Walsh Institute of Accounting and Business Administration. After two accounting positions, Jerry worked briefly in retail. After that, Jerry started his own home improvement business, Panacea Arts in Florida before he had a 20-year career at Disney in Buena Vista, Florida. Jerry enjoyed all the people he worked with at Disney and received numerous awards for painting, supervising, design and scenic art.

Jerry enjoyed making people smile by telling jokes and otherwise helping people have a better day. He had a smile for everyone and his laugh was contagious for everyone who spent time with him.

Memorial Services were held on March 30th, 2019 in Seneca, SC in Jerry and Sharon's hometown with close family in attendance.

Tribute Wall

“ Mr. Jerome Carl Deluliis

October 23, 2023 at 05:07 AM

“ He was a great partner, husband, father. and grandfather to my family. We laughed every day, hugged and said we loved each other and enjoyed life together. I miss him so much.

Sharon Deluliis - April 22, 2019 at 08:47 PM

“ Jerry would have enjoyed this page with all of his friends and family posting on it and telling jokes and stories and sharing photos! My favorite memory was the evening Jerry and Sharon invited me out to dinner then to The House of Blues in Orlando with Percy Sledge singing that night. It was a great night. I am thankful for Jerry as he was a good provider and soul mate for my sister for 30 years and he made her laugh!

Pamela Strange - April 05, 2019 at 05:50 PM