“ Nanny Christine was a wonderful woman and I will always love her. She was a very special woman to me. She wasn't only my girl's nanny,she was also my #2 momma, my shoulders to cry on, my backbone when I needed it, also my best friend for many years. I'll always remember and cherish our times together. Rest high on that mountain in the sky . We all love and miss you very much, you will never be forgotten. Love always your daughter n law,stacey frost

“ Because of my friendship with Shirley, Christine was a big part of my childhood. She cooked food that she knew I liked, she always made sure there was Worcestershire sauce for me, she made clothes & a purse for me, & treated me like her own. We moved away but I'll never forget my times with Christine and her family. God bless her family. She was a gem! 🌸
