

Margaret Williams

January 25, 1930 - April 28, 2019

Walhalla, SC — Margaret Whitaker Williams, 89, of 320 Kenneth Street in Walhalla, passed away Sunday, April 28, 2019 at her home. After professing faith in Christ at an early age, Margaret lived her life loving, honoring, and trusting Him. Her gentle and steadfast faith and love were a beautiful witness to all who knew her. She is now forever living in the near presence and love of her Savior.

Born in London, Kentucky, and raised in Hazard as a coal miner's daughter, she ventured from her modest beginnings in the Appalachian Mountains to work as a Background Researcher at the J. Edgar Hoover FBI Headquarters in Washington, D.C. Margaret married Jake Henry Williams, and together they raised three children, who were the joy of Margaret's life.

Surviving are son Jake Jeffrey (Jeff) Williams of West Jefferson, NC and daughter Karen Williams of Walhalla, SC. Margaret was preceded in passing from this life to the next by her husband, and by their son Sam Williams.

Memorial services will be held at 11:00 AM Saturday, May 4, at Double Springs Church, 389 Chattooga Ridge Road in Mountain Rest.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations in memory of Margaret Williams to Double Springs UMC PO Box 112 Mountain Rest, SC 29664 or to Providence

Care 114 E. Main Street Rock Hill, SC 29730.
