“ Some people come into our town, and some even come into our lives. Ms. Mary Ann was one of those that came into our town, our lives, and our hearts. She came into the coffee shop each week with a smile, which made us know she was glad to see us. She drank her hot dark tea as she told us about her good times, working at Bellsouth as telephone operator and her two very good marriages. She told us about bad times when her husband got Alzheimer's and how badly she handled it. But as she told us of how she found the strength to come out of her struggles, she found true faith and found a way to help others. Ms. Mary Ann loved others and was very much loved by others.

Mary Ann was married to my father, Vince Johnson and she filled his life with so much love and joy. We loved Mary Ann. She was a bright spot in this life and I know she will be greatly missed. I've just been thinking of her so much these days. God bless you Mary Ann

I miss her. She was a dear friend to me and all who knew her. Her cat, Louie, has adopted me so a part of her lives on in our very special unconditional love relationship.
