

Mrs. Paulette Marie Haney Booth

September 18, 1947 - January 29, 2025

Paulette Marie Booth (Haney) 77, loving wife of the late Billy Booth, passed away January 29, 2025 at Prisma Health Cottingham Hospice House in Seneca, SC.

Born September 18, 1947 in Lexington, KY, Paulette was the daughter of the late Jeanette Marie (Laundry) and Paul Gene Haney. She was a 1968 graduate of Irving High School. Paulette returned to Lexington and ended her varied career when she retired from Walmart in 2016.

Paulette cherished her family, her many friends, and her church. She married her husband, Billy, when she was 65 and they enjoyed 10 years together. Paulette loved children, especially the babies. One of her special gifts to family, friends, and her church, was to care for the little ones at every opportunity. Paulette's generosity extended to lovingly sharing her talents as a seamstress, quilter, and needleworker.

She is survived by siblings, Kenneth R. Haney (Lyn) of Decatur, GA; Arthur P. Haney of Lexington, KY; and Laura A. Robbins (Dan) of Seneca, SC; a special aunt, Betty Arnold, (like a second sister); and many nieces, nephews, and cousins.

In addition to her husband and parents, Paulette was preceded in death by a brother, James D. Haney and a sister-in-law, Donna E. Haney (Cook).

Visitation will be Sunday, March 30, 2:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m. with a memorial service to follow at 4:00 p.m. at Lexington First Church of God located at 505 Kingston Road.

In lieu of flowers, the family request memorials be made to Lexington First Church of God; 505 Kingston Road; Lexington, KY 40505.
