

William Keith Hogan

November 18, 1959 - August 15, 2024

William Keith Hogan, age 64, of Walhalla, South Carolina, passed away peacefully on August 15th, 2024. Born on November 18th, 1959, William was preceded in death by his parents, Janie Alma Holden and John Willard Hogan, and his brother, Nathaniel Marvin Hogan.

William is survived by his beloved daughter, Vanna Brooke Kinson, and son, Dustin Keith Hogan. He also leaves behind his cherished siblings, Kay Woody, Joyce Brown, Yvonne Martin, and Sam Hogan, along with numerous nieces and nephews who will deeply miss him.

A proud veteran of the U.S. Army, William served from 1978 to 1981. His love for life was evident in his many passions—he was an avid fisherman who found joy in sharing his favorite fishing spots with his nephews. He found joy in camping and spending time outdoors. William enjoyed spending time at the beach, and his playful spirit shone through in his love for challenging others to pool games, where he was known as a skilled competitor.

William's strength and resilience were apparent throughout his life, as he faced many challenges with courage and laughter. His humor and ability to see the best in everyone left a lasting impact on those who knew him.

A memorial service to honor William's life will be held on Saturday, August 17,

2024, at 3:00 PM at Faith Chapel Pentecostal Holiness Church in Walhalla, South Carolina.

William will be deeply missed but fondly remembered for his laughter, his love for family, and his zest for life.
